

Shadows in the hall - Laura Pöttl

Verse 1:

Walking down these crowd halls I feel so alone,
Whispers chase me cruel words like Sticks and Stones,
they laught behind my back like I don't belong,
but they don't know the weight I carry all along.

Pre-chorus:

I hide the tears, fake the smiles,
But deep inside it hurts for miles,
Where are the friends who said they stay,
now they just shadows fading away.

Chorus:

In the silence I cry but nowone hears my call,
I am breaking down beneath at all,
the world is heavy and it feels so small,
But I'll rise again even when I fall,
From the shadows in the hall.

Verse 2:

I tried to be strong but the pain won't leave, they don't understand how much I give,
every word's a wound every starves a scar,
but I found my voice no matter how far.

Pre-Chorus:

I hide the tears fake the smiles,
But deep inside it hurts for miles,
Where all the friends who said they stay,
now they just shadows fading away.

Chorus:

In the silence I cry but nowone hears my call,
I am breaking down beneath at all,
the word is heavy and it feels so small,
But I'll rise again even when I fall,
From the shadows in the hall.
